

GRAEae

in 2020...

40,000

Viewed or listened to...
Reasons to be Cheerful,
The House of Bernarda Alba, Crips Without Constraints, Signal Fires or the Graeae and Disability
Arts Online podcast

£67,000

was distributed against contracts
cancelled due to Covid-19

2,000,000+

Listened live on BBC Radio 4 and
on BBC Sounds
to Bartholomew Abominations and Connections

28

 Freelancers received 1:1 access consultancy
and mentoring

Training, education
and participation
sessions were delivered

40

 Freelance artists supported to develop their own work through the newly launched Beyond programme

1000+

 Deaf and disabled people benefitted from access provision for networking and skills development meetings

30

Freelance artists were given laptops, sound or video recording equipment to enable them to work as professionals from home

1,773

Participated in a Graeae-led training, education or participation session

71

Deaf and disabled
artists employed to deliver new work for Graeae

THANK YOU FOR ALL YOUR SUPPORT!

We'd like to extend our grateful thanks to all our funders including Arts Council England and the National Lottery, Paul Hamlyn Foundation, Esmee Fairbairn Foundation, The Sir James Reckitt Charity, Foyle Foundation, Catherine Cookson Charitable Trust, The Andrew Lloyd Webber Foundation, The Helen Jean Cope Charity, Postcode Community Trust, The National Lottery Community Fund, The Mayor of London's Culture at Risk Business Support Fund and the Creative Land Trust, City Bridge Trust, Backstage Trust, Jack Thorne, as well as the many individuals who have donated throughout 2020.

We couldn't have done it without you!